

Economic Development

Central Alabama Electric Cooperative actively supports economic and community development throughout its area.

CAEC is active in supporting efforts to build both the human and physical infrastructure necessary to improve our quality of life and promote vibrant, active, economically stable communities. CAEC partners with other state and community organizations that wish to achieve the same goals.